

POLICE 2015 Optical Collection

Iconic international fashion and lifestyle brand Police, presents the new Optical 2015 collection, offering sleek, key, urban eyewear with feminine and minimal influences. Presenting a range of optical styles that combine classic silhouettes with modern edge, the pieces still remain true to the urban style that is so typical of the recognisable brand.

Design & Inspiration

The new Police collection is designed with a focus on unique design, elegance and attention to detail to incorporate features that are striking and feminine, with retro styles and butterfly shaped frames.

Technique

All metal models are produced with a special hand-made brushing technique to provide a vintage yet fashion forward effect. The female styles incorporate pastel shades for femininity keeping the collection on-trend and fitting for the SS15 season. For 2015 there is no shortage of innovative design presenting a catwalk ready, statement collection that demands attention.

VINTAGE BLU
V1973 col. T31M

A rounded frame with feminine shapes in a transparent matt blue, the V1973 offers a retro feel through thin temples embellished with a mini hinge and the metal logo. For the classic female.

ROMANTIC DREAM
VPL052 col. 8K6

A classic vintage design with a modern twist, this unisex model is developed in an ultra-thin and lightweight steel. The forked, open temple, inspired by the special signature Neymar design, gives the frame a unique twist. For those looking for an edgy twist.

BI-COLOUR CHIC
VPL062 col. P62

A wide and round frame, the retro front piece plays with the contrasting colours of the acetate and the temple tip. The iconic, Gothic P decorates the entire temple adding an extra special design element. For those wanting a colour pop!
